Thank you to Kim and Tammy

For the last 18 weeks Kim Rinehart and Tammy Baldauf have offered three water aerobics classes a day leading almost 1,300 participant hours of water exercises. What a wonderful gift to the community. Thank you!!

Want to get your hands into the dirt? Help break down the pool plantings

Tracey and Eric Weaver will be pulling apart the pool planters, preparing hibiscus, alocasia, bougainvillea, and palms for winter. If you want to help Saturday, September 26th, contact Tracey for time and instructions: E.T.Weaver@Breezeline.net

Wine and Cheese (and Recycle, please!)

Mark Thurs evening, October 8th at 6:00 on your calendar. The Social committee is hosting a beautiful evening of wine and cheese and information. Enjoy your own charcuterie plate and a glass of wine while you listen to a presentation from Plastic Free Queen Anne County. Trust us, this will NOT be boring! Fascinating facts and jaw dropping stats. Grab your neighbor and let's do this!

Please secure your curbside trash bags

Please properly secure your garbage bags before placing outside. When our trash collector tries to grab bags that aren't tied, trash falls out. Picking up the sidewalk trash isn't part of his responsibilities.

Next Step in Board Elections – Meet the Candidates September 30th

Save the date. One sparkling new Board candidate, two interim candidates who have volunteered for full terms, and two returning Board candidates. Please come meet and give your input to these hardy souls.

FirstService Residential Update – office hours

You can find either Lee Abendschoen or Annee Gorman in the office Monday-Thursday, 8-4, and Friday 8-3.
